

Become a Mentor at IPS #83

Who can be a Mentor?

Any caring person willing to give of themselves and their time in order to invest in a young person...that might be you!

Why be a Mentor?

This adult-child mentoring relationship supports the efforts of educators and other professional who are committed to the interests of these children and can significantly impact their lives.

How to Become a Mentor?

It's as simple as calling Linda Lashbrook, Social Worker, 317-226-4283 or by email: lashbrol@ips.k12.in.us. If you want more information or have questions, please contact Linda.

What will I be doing?

Using the curriculum written by Dr. Harold Davis and Dr. Ollie Watts Davis, "Talks My Father (or Mother) Never Had with Me." with 4th, 5th, and 6th grade students from IPS #83. Sessions with students will be approximately 45 minutes per visit with all arrangements being finalized at training.

How big are the groups?

You will be working with small groups, 2-3 students, of either boys or girls at IPS #83.

Will I be Trained as a Mentor?

Yes!! There will be an one-on-one training with Linda Lashbrook, IPS Floro Torrence School #83, 5050 E. 42nd St., Indianapolis.
To R.S.V.P. for training call Linda Lashbrook, 317-226-4283.
