

Indiana High Tunnel Tour

Interested in exploring the possibilities of season extension through high tunnel production? Then plan on attending...

Harvest Moon Flower Farm – Owen County

Tuesday July 20, 2010 - Program Begins at 2:00 p.m.

Program Topics include:

12 Months of High Tunnel Production: -Tour the farm and learn about hoop-house management with little or no heat, crop opportunities for 12 months of production; Harvest moon is not just limited to flower production but includes vegetable, fruit and herb production along with a beautiful array of flowers which are produced for retail sale, wedding and business floral arrangements.

Building and Sustaining Markets For Year Round Income: Interact with owner Linda Chapman and learn tips of accessing new markets, building relationships with chefs and consumers and developing and sustaining new farmers markets.

Registration Required:

Although his program is free registration is required to help with planning. Please register by contacting Amy Thompson at afthompson@purdue.edu or by calling the Monroe County Extension office 812-349-2575. Additional information on arriving at the farm will be provided upon registration.

Harvest Moon Flower Farm is located at: 3592 Harvest Moon Lane, Spencer IN 47460

Sponsored by:

Planning Harvest Moon Flower Farm, Purdue Extension – Monroe County and the generous support of the North Central Sustainable Agriculture Research and Education (NC SARE) Professional Development program as part of the Indiana High Tunnels Training Initiative

If you need a reasonable accommodation to participate in this program, prior to the meeting, contact Amy Thompson at (812) 349-2575 or (888) EXT-INFO.

PURDUE AGRICULTURE

It is the policy of the Purdue University Cooperative Extension Service that all persons have equal opportunity and access to its educational programs, services, activities, and facilities without regard to race, religion, color, sex, age, national origin or ancestry, marital status, parental status, sexual orientation, disability or status as a veteran. Purdue University is an Affirmative Action institution. This material may be available in alternative formats.