

Champion English
Central Indiana Poultry Show
October 17, 2009
Black Australorp
Dan Klemme, Indiana

Champion Waterfowl
Central Indiana Poultry Show,
October 17, 2009
Gray Call Duck
Ralph Richardson, Kentucky

State 4-H Poultry Workshop

Saturday, January 9, 2010

10:00 a.m.—1:00 p.m.

O V Winks Building, Hamilton County Fairgrounds
2003 E. Pleasant St., Noblesville, Indiana 46060

Directions: <http://www.extension.purdue.edu/Hamilton/directions.htm>

Exhibition quality birds will be available for purchase; first come, first serve.

Workshop Presentations:

“Judging Exhibition Chickens” - Jack Patterson, State Fair Open Poultry Show Manager. Hands on judging experience.

“Selecting Quality Exhibition Waterfowl”—Doug Akers, Purdue Extension Educator, Agriculture and Natural Resources, Boone County. Learn what to look for in good show quality waterfowl.

Break—Lunch & refreshments available, from Boone Co. 4-H Poultry Club

“Selection, Feeding and Characteristics of Commercial Poultry” - Tim Calloway, State Fair Commercial Poultry Judge. Learn what to look for and how to develop your commercial poultry exhibits.

“Poultry Biosecurity for Back Yard Flocks” - Kyle Kohlhagen, Graduate Assistant, Purdue University. Bring 12 chicken eggs from your flock for a free testing!!

“Questions and Answers” - Get your questions answered by our speakers!

There is no registration fee or advanced registration required. For more information, call 1-800-601-5826, ask for Doug Keenan, Extension Educator, 4-H and Youth Development, Noble County.

Purdue University, Indiana Counties, and USDA Cooperating
An Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Institution

Purdue Extension

Knowledge to Go

1-888-EXT-INFO