IN-PERSON MEETINGS

Safety Plans
Must have a Safety Plan submitted 3 weeks ahead of meeting/event.
Two versions: Less than 50 or 50+

Keep Your Distance
Be sure to follow local, state, and Purdue guidelines when it comes to health and safety including social distancing, face coverings, communication, and cleaning protocols.

Plan Activities Appropriately
Think about activities that don't involve touching, maybe adjust where your officers sit, and be cautious with passing out materials

Should have a Virtual Component
While several youth may want to be in-person, not all are able to. Be ready to accomodate!

HYBRID MEETINGS

What is "Hybrid"?
Both In-Person AND Virtual options provided for a meeting/event.

In-Person component should follow all guidelines mentioned and....

Utilize Your Officers/Coleaders
Can someone oversee the chat or virtual part?

Technology
Does all of your technology work? What is needed to connect the virtual youth with those in-person?

Meeting Space
How can you utlizie your space efficiently and make sure everyone can hear the officers speaking?

4-H in a Box
How do you get supplies to families participating virtually?

Why are hybrid meetings important?

VIRTUAL MEETINGS
