ATTENTION
PLEASE!

IMPORTANT!!

Do not wait until the last minute!

All projects and animal entries MUST be entered into <https://v2.4honline.com> AND also <https://faireentry.com/> between MAY 1-15 using Chrome. Projects not in Fair Entry will receive a participation ribbon only. 4-H'ers must be in APPROVED status in 4-H Online profile. Do not use cell phones to register. Instructions are found at our website. Be patient and do not wait until the last minute. Fair Entry help will be offered to register fair projects at the Floyd County Extension Office on May 2, from 4-6 PM.

Here's how:

Step 1.

Double check that that enrollment is in Approved status and all indoor & animal projects to be exhibited are selected as projects in V2.4HOnline.com by midnight May 15. —If showing animals, register each animal in 4-H Online under the Animals tab by May 15.

Step 2.

Then register those projects in FairEntry.com using your 4-H Online user name and password. One entry = one exhibit. The Fair Entry window is open May 1 until May 15. Be sure to include a detailed Entry Description that will help identify your project from other similar 4-H fair projects. —If showing animals, 1) register each animal in Fair Entry by May 15. (Except Poultry and Dogs which are registered in 4-H Online only) 2) Also choose Showmanship in Fair Entry by March 15. New State rule requires animal care training to be taken and YQCA needs turned in to denglema@purdue.edu by May 15. Check the Trainings tab to verify if it was recorded.

NOTE: Remember to click Submit. Once you click “Submit,” you will not be able to add another exhibitor or entries until the first submission is processed by staff.

- 4-H'ers do not have to be in a club to show animals or enter projects in the Fair Showcase.
- 4-H'ers can exhibit projects above their class, but not below grade levels.

Project guidelines, forms and manuals are found <https://extension.purdue.edu/floyd>. Some individual project guidelines may require additional sourcing information. The Extension office has some manuals. Call for availability to purchase at 812-948-5470. Some manuals are free downloads.

To participate in the Indiana State Fair: BY MAY 15

1. ALL animals MUST be enrolled in 4-H Online.
2. ALL animals MUST be registered in Fair Entry.
3. Animal care training must be taken either in person or online.
4. Certificate of completion turned into the office to be recorded.

Mini 4-H Fair Entry Instructions

Step 1 - in 4-H Online:

General information

T-Shirts - 4-H'ers need to register projects in Fair Entry by May 15 and provide their size to receive a free 4-H t-shirt. Adults and non-members may order shirts by calling the office at 812-948-5470. Prices are $10 S-XL or $15 for XXL & up. 4-H'ers not exhibiting in the fair may order a free shirt by calling the office. Pick up your t-shirt at project check in.

Poster Projects

Guidelines are found on website, <https://extension.purdue.edu/county/floyd/> under the exhibit hall project. Animals are found at 4-H > Animal 4-H Projects > Animal Projects County & State Guidelines > All State Animal Project Links, Animal Education.

- Cat, Dog, Llama, Poultry, Rabbit are found in Fair Entry under Department the tab > State Projects > Division
- Beef, Goat, Horse, Sheep & Swine are found in Fair Entry under the Department tab > Animals.

Poster Supplies *will not be sold at fair project check in. Purchase before May 29, 2024 at the office with exact cash or check payable to Purdue CES Ed Fund. This includes white board, cardboard backing, and sleeves. Each item is $1.50. Kits are $4.00.

Photography salon sleeves & mats Sleeves are $1.50 each. Mat board backing, in multiple colors, are $3.00 each. These will not be sold at fair project check in. Purchase before May 29, 2024 at the office with exact cash or check payable to Purdue CES Ed Fund only.

Garden Projects- Due to our early Fair dates, Garden projects most likely will not be ready for harvest by check-in time. If you wish to enter a Garden project for the Indiana State Fair, let us know at check-in. Any vegetable will be accepted for exhibit. If you have questions, please contact Sam McCollum.

4-H Fashion Revue - Consumer Clothing exhibitors must participate in fashion revue after check-in to complete the project. Sewing project 4-H members are encouraged to participate during the Royalty Pageant June 5 starting at 7 PM. Register in Fair Entry under State Projects > Fashion Revue.

Completed Green Record books/folders are turned in after last project is judged. These are returned at the Awards Ceremony on Saturday where Achievement, Leadership & Community Service awards are given based on folders turned in. These also come in handy when applying for scholarships. Record & Achievement sheets are found on Floyd County website.

Exhibit Hall Projects

Be sure to check the guidelines each year for updates and necessary paperwork to accompany project. If you cannot get your projects in, please email Sam McCollum, (mccolluj@purdue.edu) to schedule a drop off time.

Models VS. Construction & Architectural Replica

If 4-'ers are unsure which category to choose, in Fair Entry the rules are --

Models are projects that are painted and glued.

Construction & Architectural Replica includes Legos, K'Nex, & wooden kits. It is the responsibility of the 4-H'er to transport Lego projects over 7000 pieces to and from the Indiana State fair if selected.

Foods

Please make sure all recipe cards are filled out accurately. 4-H'ers are allowed to take your baked food project home immediately after it is judged and photographed. Guidelines are found at the Floyd County website. Resource: National Center for Home Food Preservation <https://nchfp.uga.edu/>

Ribbon Placing

Entries must meet division guidelines so that they will not be lowered a ribbon placing. Blue, Red, and White placing ribbons will be issued to all exhibits properly entered and meeting all the project guidelines in the Floyd County 4-H Fair. Late entries will receive a participation ribbon.

Green- Participant

White- Poorly constructed or barely meets guidelines

Red- Adequate or does not fully meet guidelines

Blue- Very complete, meets guidelines, well-constructed

The Indiana State Fair awards orange ribbons for exceptional projects, blue for merit and sweepstakes to best overall.

Demonstrations

4-H'ers should consider doing a demo on your project. Demonstrations allow the 4-H member to show the audience step-by-step procedures how to do something related to any 4-H project. This takes the project a step further beyond speaking to the judge one on one. Demonstrations will be judged immediately following project check in, on Monday, June 3 at 1 PM. Register in Fair Entry under State Projects > Demonstrations.

Open Judging

Open judging means 4-H members may speak to judges about their projects. Only the 4-H'er who is the exhibitor of the project will discuss their project with the judge. Accompanying adults must to remain in the hallway. Ribbon placing is left to the discretion of the judge.

Score Cards

Want guidance knowing what the judge is looking for in your 4-H project? Scorecards can be found on the website under each project.

Dog Show

To participate in the Dog Show, 4-H'ers will need to have "Dog" selected as a project in 4-H Online and then register the dog in Fair Entry by May 15. 4-H'ers cannot participate in Agility unless participating in Dog Obedience. Vaccination and vet records need to be turned into the Dog Club leader. Grades K-2 will need a signed Mini Liability Release form.

Enroll in 4-H Online under Dog project and Fair Entry. 4-H'ers cannot participate in Agility unless they are participating in Dog Obedience. Vet and vaccination records are turned in to the dog superintendent. Dogs should be from the household that the 4-H'er resides.

Horses Show Horses will need proof of vaccinations.

County Fair Info

Livestock Trainings May 15 Deadline

BEFORE May 15, ALL 4-H'ers in grades 3-12, who wish to show animals (except dog, horse, pony, llama & alpaca) at the 2024 Floyd County 4-H Fair Showcase MUST take the either the in-person Indiana 4-H Quality Livestock Care Training or the YQCA or they will not be allowed to participate in animal show(s). For YQCA, submit Certificate of Completion to denglema@purdue.edu by May 15 to be recorded. NO EXCEPTIONS!! This is a new Indiana State 4-H requirement. Youth must be enrolled in 4-H Online current program year to have training applied. Not sure if your training has been recorded? Call or email denglema@purdue.edu to verify or click on the TRAININGS tab in your 4-H profile to verify current year was recorded. Youth may take training in person with another county 4-H Educator as long as the Certificate of Completion is submitted to Floyd County office by May 15 so that it will be recorded.

- Indiana 4-H Quality Livestock Care Training is given in-person with a 4-H Educator for $3 exact cash or check payable to Purdue CES Ed Fund. Those taking this will not need to submit proof of training unless taken with another county educator. Our office will record your training from the sign in sheet available when you arrive. This will show up in 4-H'ers 4-H Online profile under the Trainings tab.

OR

- YQCA (Youth Quality Care of Animals) is for those showing animals all year round. This is only offered online at <https://yqcaprogram.org/>. Training is $12. Once taken, 4-H'ers are responsible for emailing a Certificate of Completion to denglema@purdue.edu or bring a printed certificate to the Floyd County Extension office no later than May 15 to be record in your 4-H profile for proof. Once recorded, this will show up in 4-H'ers 4-H Online profile under the Trainings tab.

Premise ID information found www.in.gov/boah. Premise ID. A premises identification number (PIN) or location identifier (LID) is a unique code that is permanently assigned to a single physical location. BOAH requires premises registration of all sites associated with the sale, purchase and/or exhibition of the following species: cattle, swine, sheep, goats and cervids. Equine and poultry sites may be registered on a voluntary basis.

Animal Release Forms -4-H'ers who are leasing animals need to turn a copy into the Extension Office before showing the animal.

Animal Questions are found on the website. Please turn these into the animal superintendent at check-in and then put in 4-H'ers green record book/folder.

All livestock must be tagged and entered into 4-H Online and Fair Entry by May 15th or they will not be eligible to check in. No Exceptions! If you have any questions please contact your species superintendent. Uploaded pictures are needed to help identify the animal.

Poultry Enrollment Forms, found on the website, are to be used as a worksheet to register in Fair Entry to exhibit at the county fair. Be sure to select Poultry as a project in 4-H Online before registering in Fair Entry by May 15.

Indiana Poultry Exhibitor Form needs completed and handed to the Poultry Superintendent. These are found on the website.

Rabbit enrollment is done in 4-H Online. Meat rabbits can be shown. (1 pen =3 rabbits)

Billy Goats are NOT allowed

No Dogs Allowed inside 4-H Barns -Some livestock are not dog friendly.

Auction

Pictures of members who plan to sell in the auction will be taken Wednesday morning, June 5 beginning at 8:00 AM. Participants should wear a 4-H t-shirt or “show” attire.

Livestock exhibitors are strongly urged to dress in a manner appropriate to show livestock. Examples of such appropriate dress would include button down shirts, golf shirts with collar, jeans or long pants, and, if possible, work boots or work shoes to protect feet. It is suggested exhibitors not wear tank tops, t-shirts (4-H t-shirts are allowed), midriiffs, halter tops, baggy pants, tops with spaghetti straps, shorts, or cut offs. Crocs, sandals, or flip flops are not allowed. The judge may use these guidelines as criteria for final placings.

Auction Dinner starts at 6 PM on Friday, June 7.

Livestock Auction is scheduled for Friday, June 7 at 7 PM. Remember, to participate in the auction you must have one indoor project entered and participate in the auctioned animal's showmanship competition.

While supplies last, these items may be purchased at the Floyd County Extension office on or before May 29, 2024. We accept cash or check only. These items will NOT be sold at fair project check in .
