

HEALTH & HUMAN SCIENCES

Purdue Extension - Noble County- Extension Homemakers

Extension Homemakers Organized in 1919

Extension Homemakers

Noble County has four Extension Homemaker clubs with 50 members. Their mission is to strengthen families through continuing education, leadership development, and volunteer community support. If you are someone you know is interested in joining the Extension Homemakers contact Brandy at the Noble County Extension office for more information.

EXTENSION HOMEMAKERS' CREED

We believe in the present and its opportunities, in the future and its promises, in everything that makes life large and lovely, in the divine joy of living and helping others.

And so we endeavor to pass on to others that which has benefitted us, striving to go onward and upward, reaching the pinnacle of economic perfection, in improving, enlarging and endearing the greatest institution in the world - THE HOME.

Mrs. W. C. Horne, Hendricks County, 1930

EXTENSION HOMEMAKERS' PLEDGE

To maintain the highest ideals of home life; to count children the most important crops; to so mother them that their bodies may be sound, their minds clear, their spirits happy, their characters generous; to place service above comfort; to let loyalty to high purpose silence discordant notes; to let neighborliness supplant hatred; to be discouraged never; to lose self in generous enthusiasms; to believe one's community may become the best of communities; and to cooperate with others for the common end of a more abundant home and community life.

Noble County EH Club Members volunteering at Stones Trace Pioneer Festival September 2024

There at many service projects and craft days sponsored by the Extension Homemakers throughout the year.

