MEET THE EDUCATOR

Hannah Kerkhof

Hello! I'm Hannah Kerkhof, the new 4-H educator here in Scott County. I am so excited to join the team and get to know all of the 4-H families and volunteers.

Let me introduce myself!

I grew up on my family's row crop farm in northern Jackson County. I still love to help out, especially during planting and harvest seasons. I am an alumnus of Trinity Lutheran High School in Seymour, where I met my Fiancé. I was a 10-year 4-H member in Jackson County where I was an active member in Junior Leaders, showed sheep, and took a variety of building projects.

I graduated from Purdue's College of Agriculture in May with a Bachelor's degree in Agricultural Communication. During my time at Purdue, I enjoyed involvement with many clubs, most notably Collegiate Farm Bureau and The Agricultural Communicators of Tomorrow. I also served as an ambassador for the Agricultural Sciences Education and Communication Department, working to promote the department internally as well as to prospective students. While at Purdue, I also worked in the state 4-H office as a student clerical intern.

Other fun facts to know about me:

- I'm a huge college basketball fan, and especially love to support my boilermakers. During my senior year of college, I had a 100% attendance rate to all home basketball games.
- I love to travel and spend time outside. One of my bucket list items is to visit all 63 of the United State's National Parks. So far, I have visited eight.
- I am very passionate about rural culture and love visiting different small towns in Indiana.

Scott County 4-H Jr. Leaders are selling Marion Kay spices!

Jr. Leaders need to stop by the office and pick up order forms. We should have them by this Friday, Oct. 3rd.

If you would like to help support the Scott County 4-H, stop by the Extension Office, or email scottces@purdue.edu or spfaffen@purdue.edu and place your order before Friday, November 14th.

Money from fundraising goes towards trips, scholarships and community service events.
