

2025 SCHOLARSHIP(S)

ADAMS COUNTY CROPS COMMITTEE AND/OR ADAMS COUNTY PORK PRODUCERS

(2 different scholarships using the same application) (hand written is perfectly acceptable)

1. The Adams County Crops Committee and/or the Adams County Pork Producers are offering scholarships to high school seniors in Adams County intending to study agriculture beyond high school in a two or four-year college program. Special consideration is given to those who have been active in showing swine as a 4-H project for the pork producer scholarship.
2. CROPS COMMITTEE – Potentially, at least three ($150 minimum) scholarships will be given payable in one installment, once during the fall semester.
PORK PRODUCERS – Potentially, at least one ($250) scholarship will be given payable in one installment, once during the fall semester.
3. Payment will be made, in the form of a check, upon presentation of proof of acceptance/class transcript in an agricultural program.
4. The student must be a graduating high school senior, either mid term or spring.
5. This scholarship is awarded on citizenship/leadership experience, school/community activities, career objectives, scholarship, and recommendations.
6. One recommendation is required from each student, using the accompanying form.
7. The completed application form and recommendation must be returned to the Adams County Extension Office by March 20, 2025.
8. The scholarship award “may” be presented at the Chapter FFA Banquet.
9. This scholarship is given upon the discretion of the committee; therefore, it may be negated prior to attending a college if student ends up on bad behavior and not worthy of the scholarship.
