

4-H Online Event Registration Instructions

1. Complete the 4-H Online login process to access your family profile and member list.

The screenshot shows the 4-H Online Member List interface. On the left is a navigation menu with options: Member List (selected), Family, Events, Credit Cards, Login History, and Email History. The main content area displays the profile for a family named 'Beebe' with contact information and an 'Add Member' button. Below this is a table of members and their programs.

2. Click on Events to see a list of all events available to your family members

The screenshot shows the 4-H Online Events page. The left navigation menu has 'Events' selected. The main content area is titled 'Events I have Registered For' and lists two events: 'Testing Event - 2020-2021' (Indiana 4-H Youth Development - Approved) and 'State Summer Events - 2021-2022' (Indiana 4-H Youth Development - Incomplete). A 'Register for a new event' button is visible in the top right.

3. Complete any required questions/sessions

The screenshot shows the registration progress for 'Chance Boilermaker' for 'State Summer Events'. A progress bar at the top shows five steps: 1. Questions, 2. Health Form, 3. Consents (current step), 4. Payment, and 5. Confirm. Below the progress bar, there is a dropdown menu for 't-shirt size' with a 'required' label. To the right, an 'Invoice' section shows a 'Registration Fee' of '$190.00'.

4. Complete the Health Form.

Behavioral Criteria for 4-H Events and Activities

To 4-H members, volunteers, parents and the public: When attending, participating or acting on behalf of the 4-H program, all persons are expected to conduct themselves in accordance with accepted standards of social behavior, to respect rights of others, and to refrain from any conduct which may be injurious to the 4-H program. The following actions constitute misconduct for which persons may be subject to disciplinary consequences and/or dismissal from the program:

- (a) Dishonesty in connection with any 4-H activity by cheating or knowingly furnishing false information.
- (b) Alteration or unauthorized use of 4-H records.
- (c) Obstruction or disruption of any 4-H activity or aiding and encouraging other persons to engage in such conduct.
- (d) Failure to comply or aiding or encouraging other persons not to comply with specific terms and conditions of a given project, contest, or activity.
- (e) Failure to comply with directions of 4-H officials acting in the proper performance of their duties.
- (f) Inhumane treatment of 4-H animal projects.

There are many opportunities for 4-H members, volunteers, parents and the public to participate in 4-H events and activities. When involved in such experiences, members, volunteers, parents and the public are expected to follow all rules and regulations as outlined by those responsible for the specific program or activity. In all such 4-H activities, the following constitute a violation of behavioral
